

ACADEMIC LANGUAGE QUIZ

Moving into open space can give the offense an _____.

1

- a. arrangement
- b. arm length
- c. advantage
- d. air ball

Jack's throws are not accurate because he stops his arm above his shoulder and doesn't _____.

2

- a. try hard enough
- b. follow through
- c. show hands
- d. keep thumbs together

The player that defends a target is called the _____.

3

- a. striker
- b. full back
- c. star
- d. goalie

Relationship to the goal and ball, awareness of open/closed space, and effort are all important _____.

4

- a. movement concepts
- b. skills
- c. theories
- d. rules

An area of general space with no obstacles is called _____.

5

- e. traffic zone
- f. open space
- g. shooting space
- h. passing zone

Defensive _____ involves knowing where to be in relation to the ball, the offense, and the goal.

6

- a. hustle
- b. targeting
- c. positioning
- d. help

When a player shoots the ball, she/he sends it toward the _____.

7

- a. sideline
- b. backfield
- c. centerline
- d. goal/target

Staying spread out and moving to open space is a part of the offense's _____.

8

- a. rule book
- b. strategy
- c. etiquette
- d. team promise