

ACTIVE CLASSROOM

ACTIVITY CARDS

ONCE, TWICE, SHOW!

- Stand at least 6 to 12 feet from a partner.
- Hold 1 hand out – making a fist with knuckles facing down.
- The object of this game is to correctly call out the sum of fingers you and your partner show.
- Together students chant “Once, Twice, Show!” while pumping fists 3 times.
- On “Show” both students hold out any number of fingers 1 – 5 (not zero).
- The first student to correctly add up fingers from both hands wins!
- Challenge: Use both hands (10 fingers). Multiply fingers instead of adding.

RELATIONSHIP: The way in which two or more people, concepts, or objects are connected.

Kendra and Jazon have a good relationship. They help each other work toward personal and academic goals.
